

ABOUT US

Firstly allow us congratulate you on your forthcoming wedding and thank you for choosing to contact us with regard to your wedding photography.

At Nottingham Wedding Photography we practice an easy going and fun approach that ensures your photography is a pleasurable and unobtrusive part of your big day.

Your service starts with an initial meeting many weeks or months prior to your wedding day. Here we will discuss your exact requirements and you will be welcome to look through sample albums to help guide you in your decisions.

We offer a range of options and services to meet your requirements all resulting in a beautiful handmade album showcasing your special day. Typically couples will choose one of our three standard packages, Bronze, Silver or Gold. However we have also recently added a fourth 'Platinum' package to cater for couples that require a more contemporary feel to their album.

We are more than happy to attend several locations on the day (time permitting) to ensure we capture all aspects of your wedding. The photographic coverage of your wedding starts at the time at a time appropriate to your chosen package and typically ends with the first dance but this can be extended at your request.

We never set a limit to the number of photographs taken at a wedding and will often capture anything between 500 and 1000 images. These images will be available to you as proofs on a CD so you can decide at your own pace which images you would like to see in your album, We are always available for advice on image choices should you have any questions during your edit.

Any manipulations requested at this stage, such as mixing colour and black and white together in the same image or removing unwanted items in the background are included in the package price.

All photographs are then sent to an award winning professional lab, who provide us with high quality crystal archive prints, for the best in longevity. Your album is then assembled and will be ready for collection within about 6 weeks.

* The Canvas Wrap Wall Portrait is the perfect way to show off your favourite photograph. This three dimensional canvas sits about one and a half inches out from the wall giving a modern, stylish and fresh appearance to any room.

The image is printed to real photographic paper. It is then bonded on to artist's canvas in the traditional way and heatsealed for protection. The print is then stretched and carefully secured around the bespoke framework and then finished complete with hanging fixtures.

 MDF Black wraps are based on the canvas wrap. Your image, printed on true silver photographic paper and sealed, is image wrapped around a solid MDF form. It is hung on the wall using two 12mm batons on the rear of the block.
